Is There a Wocket in My Pocket?

The main character encounters a variety of animals in the book. Explain why you think he has these feelings towards the animals.

Zell on the Shelf "I have talked to him myself."
Zamp in the Lamp "And they're rather nice... I think."
Yot in the Pot "Some of them are very friendly."
Yotlie in the Bottle "Some are friendly. Some are NOT."
Bofa on the Sofa "Well, I wish he wasn't there."
Rupboards in the Cupboards "They're good fun to have about."
Tooth Crush on my Tooth Brush "Hmm I could do without."
Vug under the Plug "The only one I'm scared of."
Gumney up the Chimney "I don't like him, not at all."
Zal scoots down the Hall "And it makes me sort of nervous."
Yeps on the Steps "They're great fun to have around."
"I don't care if you believe it. That's the kind of house I live in. And I hope I never leave it."

It is a very simple idea, but it will help children with a series of specific skills: encouraging theirʅnderstand and combine words of rhyme, fine and gross motor development, and learn about positional words, or prepositions. Prepare your C mara and have your print copy of this class book. Give a p gina to each child (read it aloud to them) and make them begin to think about where they could go with the preposition in their page. Will he continue, on the side, etc.? They have to choose a place in the classroom that coincides with their word location in the p gina. They write that word of location (drugs, pillows, table, etc.) both in the first and in the second box of their pages. So it is like ... Step 1. Read the book but first, let's go some inter -s to get hooked. Read the book (affiliate). "There is a Wocket in my pocket" by Dr. Seuss.
